Wood's THEATER .- This popular establishment was crowded, literally jammed full, on the occasion of the benefit of Owens, on Saturday night. Owens was himself, and the entire company received showers of applause all through the performance. To-night, the able manager, Geo. Wood, takes a Benefit. The entire Star Troupe have volunteered their services on the occasion. Such a combination of talent, together with the fact that it is for the benefit of one who caters so successfully for the amusement of the public, will draw another crowded house. We learn that Eliza Legan, the American favorite-here and everwherehas volunteered for the occasion. This ensures a triumph to-night. Secure your seats early.

A root race came off on Saturday back of Newport, between Mr. Langdon of the east and Sylvester Doss, of this city. Distance two miles. Doss won-time 10 minutes 48 seconds.

A CITIZEN, on computing what it would cost to pay his bill for grading Western Avenue, found it would cost $17,000 for what he owed. The ordinance was withheld by City Commissioners.

OFFICERS over the Rhine say that yesterday was the most quiet Sunday they have known for years. Coffee-house doors were generally shut, and on some the proclamations of the Mayor were hung out for notice.

OXFORD Female College commencement, is on Thursday, 23d instant. As many of our citizens will attend the above exercises, we can assure them they will find ample accommodation, and the best of fare, at the popular hotel kept by our friend Cone.

DR J. B. CAMPBELL has furnished us a communication which, for want of room, we cannot publish. The Dr. alleges that the charge made upon him for that act-bearing more or less upon the generation to come-was on account of "the root of all evil"-love of money.

In 1840, $4,000,000 worth of Dry Goods was sold in Cincinnati. In 1850, 10,000,000. This year it will foot at over $26,000,000.

not confirm the French report of dreadful slaughter at Magenta. The French Emperor sends home a glowing account of having taken 12,000 muskets. But there can be no doub that the Austrians have been dreadfully worsted, for Milan, the Capital, the rich and magnificent city, which is elsewhere described, has been infested by the Sardinians and French.

BIG FEET UNDER ONE TABLE .- Yesterday some magnates met at the Burnet House and dined at one table, in the ladies' ordinary. The men were rather extra-ordinary; the finest looking one was the distinguished Ex-President of the U.S., Milliard Fillmore, of New York. A distinguished member of his Cabinet, our own Tom Corwin, was at his side. Near him sat a member of Gen. Harrison's Cabinet, Hon. Thos. Ewing. Ohio was further represented by her distinguished young Senator, Geo. E. Pugh, of this city. The man of mark on politics of the day, was also at the same board; we mean the young giant of the West, Hon. Stephen A. Douglas. Kentucky was represented by the game cock of Bourbon, Hon. Garrett Davison, Ex-member of Congress; and Virginia by ex-editor A. D. Bank, of the Richmond South. Ours is a metropolitan city.

MERCHANTS AND BANKERS-A SAFE INVEST-MENT .- There is the product of a Cincinnati manufacturing establishment on Pearl street. near the market-house, of which we are proud. It is no more or less than a Burglar and Fire Proof Safe of large size, and most complete workmanship. When our eyes rest open anything of importance, made here or elsewhere, that is truly of a superior make and finish, we shall consider it within our province to pass judgment. We regret we did not see this triumph of skill earlier than Saturday evening, for through the extensive circulation of the Daily Press, we could have sent many scores of our readers to view it. We have no doubt that this is the best Safe the safest Save-that has ever been constructed in this country. If any one is desirous of seeing this great work, go early, as it is about to be shipped to its piace of destination-Winchester, Ky. The establishment to which we refer, is that of W. B. Dodd & Co's., Pearl street, near Pearl-street markethouse.

THE jury who have it in charge to estimate for the people, what price one "Monopoly" Company shall pay for a strip seven feet wide, through ninetoen miles of the streets of this city, making over one hundred and thirty-one thousand square feet, or about twenty acres, resume their diliberations this morning. We presume they will not agree, and if so, we cannot believe that the Courts will ever again be made the forum in which law should be strained from its evident intent, to confer extraordinary grants upon one company, who, if the people were to speak out, would indignantly repudiate the impertment demand. No sensible man can reasonably claim that the legislature meant to give any company authority to make a wholesale appropriation of all the streets in a great commercial city. The presumption of the parties is made more ridiculous when they claim to have this rich monopoly for a mere song-4 few paltry dollars.

cerite artists, Professor Tosso and Miss Sophie Werner, will favor the Oxfordonians with a grand rausical entertainment some evening during this week, probably Tuesday. We congratulate our Oxford friends on the rich treat which they anticipate, and we hope that no one who can go, will miss hearing these distinguished musical artists. Of Tosso, it is unnecessary to speak. Many of the older citizens of Oxford have heard him draw the bow in days 'lang syne," and are anxious to hear him again. Of Sophic Werner, the highly gifted young pianist, we cannot speak in too high terms of praise. She executes the most difficult of Thalberg's compositions and arrangements with the power and effect which so delighted the hearers of that distinguished artist; indeed, we never hear her play without being reminded of Thalberg. She is not yet twelve years of age, and we think it desirable that the young should hear her, and emulate her example. We hope the pupils of the various schools and Seminaries of Oxford will turn out to the Concert en masse. The College Boys, of course will ARRESTED .- Last Christmas, Daniel Van Matre, Esq., an old and respected citizen was brutally assaulted and beaten by two ruffians, on Walnut street above Sixth. Since that time until within the last two weeks, Mr. Van Matre has been confined to his bed and is only able to get out upon crutches. Yesterday one of the scoundrels, who made the assault, was arrested. His name is Michael Whitney, and since the affair, he has been out of the city, up to the time of his arrest. His examination will take place this morning before Judge Lowe.

No. 233, LAUREL STFEET .- This afternoon at 41/2 o'clock, C. J. W. Smith will sell this fine three story brick. See advertisement.

ARRIVAL OF THE ANGLO-SAXON

Exciting News from the Seat of War.

GREAT BATTLE NEAR MILAN!

Austrians Defeated! 25,000 Killed & Disabled.

FIVE THOUSAND PRISONERS!

FRENCH LOSS 12,000. THE AUSTRIANS EVACUATED MILAN.

Details of the Battle.

Marshal Canrobert Mortally Wounded FARTHER POINT (below Quebec), June 18:-The steamer Anglo-Saxon, with dates from Liverpool to the Sth instant, four days later than those received by the Europa, passed this point this morning, bound for Quebec.—She brings the most important and exciting news from the seat of war. A great battle has been fought near Milan, in which the Austrians were defeated, with the loss of 25,000 killed and disabled. Five thousand were taken prisoners.

The French loss is estimated at 12,000.

The Austrians have evacuated Milan. The Queen's speech was delivered in Parliament on the 7th inst. It contains nothing very important.

A motion was pending of a want of confidence in the ministry.

In the Liverpool cotton market, the quotations reported by the last steamer were barely maintained, and in some cases there were sales at a decline of 1/4d. All qualities of breadstuffs had slightly de elined. Provisions were dull. LONDON, June 7 .- Consols are quoted at 931/@9334. SECOND DISPATCH.

A desperate battle was fought at Magenta on the 4th inst., between the allied army under the Emperor Napoleon and the Austrian army under General Hess, in which unlimited forces were engaged on both sides.

The Emperor Napoleon, in his dispatches to the Empress at the Tuilleries, claims a decisive victory, saying that his army took seven thousand prisoners, disabled twolve thousand men, and captured three cannon and two standards He estimates the loss of his own army at three thousand, but it was rumored in Paris that the French loss was between nine thousand and twelve thousand.

It is reported that there were from one hundred and fifty thousand to one hundred and eighty thousand Austrians and one hundred and thirty thousand French engaged in the The Austrian accounts differ widely from those of the French. Their bulletins speak of several battles being fought with varying sucess on both sides.

It was still undecided on the night of the 6th inst, as to who gained the victory. Great losses on both sides are reported. General Espinosel, on both sides are reported. General Espinoses, of the second corps d'armes, was killed, and Marshal Canrobert, commander of the third corps, was mortally wounded.

General Maurice McMahon, commanding the second corps d'armee, had been created Marshal and Duke de Magenta, as a reward for his bravery on the battle-field. Five of the French Marshals and Generals were wounded. Marshal Count Baraguay D'Hilliers has been superseded in his command of the first corps d'armee, by General Forey. Four Austrian Generals and five staff officers were wounded at the battle. There had been a general revolt at Milan and the people had declared in favor of the King of Sardinia.

The Austrians had retired from Milan, but the city had not yet been occupied by the Later rumors detract from the French the victory at Magenta.

She laments the outbreak of the war; she did all she could to prevent it, and proclaims her strict and impartial neutrality. She says the navy has been increased beyond the authority granted by Parliament, and asks for its sanction. She recommends the reopening of diplo-matic intercourse with Naples. She expresses the hope that the Reform question will be settied at this or the next session.

In the House of Commons the Liberals had moved an amendment to the address to the throne in reply to the Royal speech, declaring that Her Majesty's ministers do not possess the confidence of Parliament, and the debate thereon was pending.

From New York. New York, June 18 .- The two Roman Catholic clergymen, Dayman and Camps, who re-Hughes, publish cards in to-day's Herald, re voking and retracting whatever they had said on this subject that was either conflicting to the truth, dissonant with the faith and disci-pline of the church or offensive to the sacred dignity of the Archb.shop; they heartily re penting of the same, and humbly asking the prayers, pardon and indulgence of the Arch-bishop in particular, and all of those in general to whom they may have given any scandal

Capt. McAlmond, and Wise, engineer, with seven subordinates, and all the necessary ma-tervals for repairs, etc., went out yesterday to Key West, to take the steamer Scottish Chief to Nicaragua. She is intended for navigating the river San Juan.

On the 10th inst., by the North Star, the captain and engineer of the lake steamer Cass-Yrissari went out to take charge of the Cass-Yrissari and put her in order for service.

It is said that Mr. Johnson has arranged with a large steam-ship owner for the service between New York and San Juan, and also with a Southern steam-ship owner for service between New Orleans and Key West.

Two parcels of Pike's Peak gold, assayed at New York, have yielded as follows: One, con-sisting of shot and scale gold, taken from the mountains near Denver City, worth $17 88 in coin; another from the South Platte river, worth $19 81 in coin. $19 SI in coin.

The prisoners under examination were Daniel Morgan, first mate, and twelve of the crew. The evidence as to the character of the vessel was somewhat minute, but the Commissioner held that it was insufficient to hold the accused, and they were accordingly discharged.

Paul Morphy.

New York, June 18.—Paul Morphy will proceed next week to Philadelphia, on a visit to the Atheneum Club; after which he will start for New Orleans via Cincinnati, St.

Louis, and other cities.

Mr. Morphy visited the rooms of the Brooklyn Chess Club, a night or two since, and played two games with Mr. H. H. Knott and one with Mr. Marache. In each game Mr. Morphy gave the odds of a queen's knight, and was the victor.

THE BATTLE OF MAGENTA.

QUEREC, June 19 .- The Auglo-Saxon hav ing arrived here, the papers received furnish some details of the battle of Magenta.

It appears that, on the 4th instant, the French troops were under orders to cross the Ticino at Turbigo.

The Emperor in his official bulletin says "His order was well executed, though th enemy, in great force, offered a determined resistance. The roadway was narrow, and during two hours the Imperial Guard sustained, unsupported, the shock of the enemy In the meantime Gen. McMahon made him self master of Magenta, and after the mosanguinary conflicts, the enemy was repulsed at every point."

It is said that the Austrians, in the precipitation of their evacuation of Milan, left their cannon and treasure behind.

The Emperor says that the troops have captured 12,000 Anstrian musicets.

The municipality of Milan presented an address to King Victor Emanuel, in the presence of the Emperor. The King was to enter Milan en Tuesday, the 7th instant. The Austrian official bulletin says: "The conflict was desperate between the 1st and 3rd army corps, and the enemy in considerable force. The contest was undecided, and continued on Sunday. Our troops threw themselves on the enemy with an ardor and perseverance worthy of the most glorious feats of the Imperial arms."

A Vienna dispatch (unauthenticated) in the Frankfort papers, says that through the opportune arrival of Count Clair, Gallas and his corps, the Austrians were victorious, and after a hot fight the French were thrown back over the Ticino.

The London Times says: "There was very the fighting at Bullalors, with varying suc-hard fighting at Buffalors, with varying suc-cess. The battle justed till late at night, and was continued the next day at Magenta."

New York Stock Market. NEW YORK, June 18-P. M. Stocks-There was no second Board.

COLUMBUS NEWS. STREET RAILBOAD COMPANY, Messrs, Joseph H. Riley, Theo, Comstock, Thomas Sparrow, Peter Ambos, C. P. L. Butler, Juc. B. Hall, and Wm. B. Thrail, of this city, with Seneca W. Ely, Esq., of Chillicothe, have associated themselves into a Company, to be styled the Columbus Street Bailroad Company, the object of which is to establish, for passen-Montgomery and Franklin, and in the corporations of Columbus and Franklinton. The first route will commence at a point one mile south of the corpora tion line on Chillicothe Pike, north through High street to a point one mile north of the corporation on the Worthington Plank Road. The second will commence at or near the west bank of Alum Creek, and run in a westerly direction through Broadway to Franklin street, in Franklinton, thence south to a point on the Harrisburg road, near Green Lawn Cemetery, and thence east to the intersection of Third and High streets. The third route will commence at the intersection of Town and High streets, running east to East Public Lane, ther south to Friend street. The capital stock of the Company is $250,000, A GERMAN medical gentleman in the Southern part of the city, slightly opened his eyes yesterday morning, when, upon entering his office, a quantity of nuts were noticed on the table. The bait was too tempting and the Dr. bit, causing a slight "concussion" amongst the contents of the nut, which proved to be powder and other little necessaries for an explosion. If the Doctor's eyes were opened when he saw the nuts, they persisted in closing up when he heard the explosion, which had the effect to injure his mouth severely. He is unable to suspect any particular person of the outrage. The commencement exercises of Central College occurred on the 15th inst., being highly interesting and attended by a large number of our citizens THE Vedettes were out in full dress parade lastjevening, attracting universal attention The returned juvenile vocalists will perform at eral older amateurs.

In Common Pleas Court, yesterday, Judge Bates lelivered a lengthy opinion, overruling the motion to quash the indictment in the contested election cases. The case of Holdemard Crary, Esq., for pro-curing illegal votes, was then tried, resulting in a rerdict of acquittal. An adjourned meeting of the Celebration Commitee was held at the American Hotel last evening, P. Ambos, Esq., in the Chair. Letters were read from more than fifty different societies—Bonevolent, State,

Armory Hall one evening next week, assisted by sev-

Municipal and Religious—accepting the invitation of the Committee to celebrate on the occasion of the Fourth. The following gentlemen compose the Committees for completing the arrangements, in accordance with the resolution representing every department of business.

The names will be published to-morrow.] In Common Pleas Court this afternoon, the jury sefore whom Mr. Crary was tried for procuring illegal votes, after an absence of two minutes, returned a verdict of not guilty. Thomas Davis has been found guilty of burglary and his brother Henry sequitted.
